

Memo of Understanding

This Memo of Understanding documents the agreement for provision of food services between the College and the Frost Student Association (FSA), including renovations scheduled to take place in the summer of 2017.

1. The College and FSA agree that food services for the Frost Campus will be provided pursuant to an agreement between a third party food service provider and the College. FSA hereby consents to the extension by the College of the current Food Service Agreement.
2. All terms and conditions of the Food Services Contractual Agreement, Amendment # 1, Section 6, Exclusivity will be adhered to by FSA.
3. The provision of food services in the Auk's Lodge (FSA Student Centre) and adjoining outdoor patio area will be provided by a third party, authorized by the College's Food Services Department.
 - a) FSA will not operate their own food service operation in the Auk's Lodge or adjoining outdoor patio area.
 - b) FSA will not enter into any agreements with a third party to operate a food services operation in the Auk's Lodge or adjoining outdoor patio area.
 - c) FSA will have the option to sell items as agreed to by the College at the bar within the Auk's lodge during hours the College's food services does not operate. Food that is purchased through the College's food service provider can be sold at the bar within the Auk's lodge at any time.
4. FSA will provide regular ongoing feedback through meetings (minimum two per semester) with the Food Services Department, Food Services Provider Representative, and other food service committees on the following items at the Frost Campus:
 - a) Capital renovations. Scheduled in the Auk's Lodge during the summer of 2017. Renovations will be managed by College's food service provider. There will be no financial cost to FSA.
 - b) Hours of operation.
 - c) Menu options.
 - d) Service Standards.
5. The College's food service provider has agreed to make every effort to employ Fleming student employees, providing this does not negatively impact operational needs, collective agreements, or service delivery.
6. The term of this MOU will coincide with the term of the extension of the Food Services Agreement entered into by the College with the third party provider, which expires on April 30, 2022.

Please indicate your consent and agreement to the forgoing by signing by copies of this Memo of Understanding in the space below.

Dated the 12th day of April, 2017.
