Types of Articulation Activity

Articulation activities based on the negotiated agreement between the signing representatives can include but are not restricted to the following:

1. Advanced standing/exemption: successful completion of secondary school course(s) which entitles the student to an elective credit in a specific program.
2. Admission consideration: secondary school course(s) specified in the agreement will be weighted and used in the determination of admission status for a college's / university's / training centre's oversubscribed program application process.
3. Field placement consideration: secondary school co-operative education placement of a certain type, length and based on the level of achievement may be used to reduce the required hours for a specific field placement requirement at College / University / Training centre.
4. Additional activities: projects involving secondary and College / University students and teachers that will enhance student learning and promote a successful transition to college.

Responsibilities:

It is the responsibility of Fleming College and the Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board via the appropriate Secondary School Principal to support articulation activities.

1. The Secondary School will inform the students of the articulation agreement(s) with Fleming College.
2. Fleming College will inform the Registrar's department and faculty in the school about the articulation agreement.
3. The student will initiate the College application process and ensure that the appropriate documentation for the completed secondary school course(s) is available to the Registrar.

Review guidelines:

1. This agreement shall be subject to a joint review and subsequent modification by the Kawartha Pine Ridge District School Board and Fleming College.
2. When the curriculum in either organization is revised, it will be the responsibility of the institution initiating the change to notify the other contracting institution(s).
3. Each institution is responsible for keeping their administrative and instructional staff informed of any changes in this agreement.
4. This agreement may be terminated by either party at any time on written notice of 60 days, or shall be terminated if required by any policy or regulation of the Ministry of Education to ensure compliance with the Education Act and policy directives as set by the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities.
