

Fleming/Loyalist – Educational Assistant (EA) Program Articulation Agreement

Fleming & Loyalist College have entered into a co-operative agreement to enable the graduates of the Loyalist EA certificate program to complete the Fleming EA diploma program.

1. Individuals who have completed the Loyalist EA certificate program will be given credit for courses in the Fleming EA Diploma Program as shown in the attached table – part A.
2. Loyalist College will provide the additional courses shown in the attached table – part B for credit in the Fleming courses as listed.
3. Fleming College will deliver the courses shown in the attached table – part C.
4. To be eligible for a Fleming EA diploma, individuals must complete all of parts A, B, and C.
5. Students of the Loyalist College program must complete all course requirements in Parts A and B before advancing to Part C at Fleming College
6. All of the courses will be delivered at/through the Loyalist, Bancroft Campus.
7. Participation in this program does not entitle participants direct access to or advanced standing in the regular Fleming EA diploma program.
8. Official record of completion of courses in parts A & B will be provided by Loyalist College to Fleming College for each participant.
9. Fleming College must approve, in advance, all courses identified in parts B & C including the course outline/syllabus/assessment of learning and the instructor.
10. Loyalist College will register, set fees and be responsible for all expenses for the delivery of courses in parts A & B.

11. Fleming College will register, set fees and be responsible for all expenses for the delivery of courses in part C.
12. Eligible General Education Elective courses for part B will be determined based on CSAC criteria and reviewed by the Fleming General Education Elective co-ordinator.
13. A minimum number of participants in each course will be established by Loyalist for those courses in parts A & B and by Fleming for those courses in parts C.
14. The requirements and conditions for completing Field Practice & Evaluation (1110238) and Field Practice & Evaluation Part A & B (1110529) will be determined by the Fleming EA program coordinator for each individual participant.
15. This agreement will be administered through Fleming Training Services except for approval of course outline/syllabus/assessment of learning and the instructor which shall be the responsibility of the Fleming EA program coordinator.
16. This agreement will be formally reviewed biannually by both Fleming & Loyalist.

Maureen Piercy, VP Academic
Loyalist College

November 28/02
Date

Rachael Donovan, VP Academic
Fleming College

Nov 28/02
Date

Fleming/Loyalist - Educational Assistant

Fleming

Loyalist

Equivalencies

Current Certificate Requirements

1390002 Human Growth & Development
1060109 Introduction to Exceptionalities
1390224 Behaviour Management

105-002B Child Development
105-006B Introduction to Exceptionalities
105-004B Child Guidance/Behaviour Management
105-007B Creative Approaches to Program Planning
105-005B Practicum Seminar/Placement

1110458 Field Practice
1110499 Field Prep II
1060075 Role of Assistant
010382L Computer Module

A

105-001B Intro to Role of EA
105-591.C Intro to Computers-Computers in the Classroom

Equivalencies

Additional Courses To Be Delivered by Loyalist

1390202 Intro Psychology
1050199 Intro College Communications
1050132 American Sign Language
1390280 Pharmacology &
Non-violent Crisis Intervention

B

311P Intro Psychology
0135A Communications
1405 A Basic Course in ASL
Pharmacology & Non-violent Crisis Intervention
General Education Elective*

Additional Courses To Be Delivered by Fleming

1060133 Language Arts Curriculum
1300214 Math Curriculum
1060092 Intellectual Exceptionalities
1390203 Social Psychology
1050192 Communicating at Work
1060118 Physical Exceptionalities
1110458 Field Practice
1390281 Advanced Behavioural Strategies
1110238 Field Practice & Evaluation or
1110529 Field Practice & Eval - Part A and
1110529 Field Practice & Eval - Part B

C