Faculty & Course Evaluation

Fleming College wants to continually improve our courses in order to provide students with quality education. This faculty and course evaluation survey is our way of finding out, from you, what we are doing well in our courses and how they can be improved. The information you provide will assist faculty and leaders with future planning. If you have any immediate concerns they should be addressed with your faculty member now.

Please read each of the statements carefully and select your response according to the scale provided. If the statement is not applicable, please select N/A.
