FLEMING

Acknowledgement of the Land

“We are visitors on this land – we are caretakers for future generations”

Acknowledgement of the Land

Fleming College respectfully acknowledges that we are situated on the Traditional territory of the Michi Saagig of the Anishinaabe. Oral History teaches us that the Michi Saagig shared the land with the Odawa and Huron nations before colonial contact. The Michi Saagig are the traditional people of the North shore of Lake Ontario and its tributaries; this has been Mississauga territory since time immemorial.

We are grateful for the opportunity to work, live and learn here and the relationships that Fleming continues to build and works to maintain in a respectful and reciprocal way. We also recognize the contributions of Métis, Inuit, and other Indigenous peoples, both in shaping and strengthening this community and country as a whole. This recognition is connected to our collective commitment to make the promise and the challenge of Truth and Reconciliation real in our Fleming community. Fleming College is committed to fortifying relationships with Indigenous communities while embedding intellectual and cultural Knowledge into curriculum, activities, and systems.

Why do we do a land acknowledgement?

Land acknowledgements have been practiced in what is now known as Canada, for centuries. Prior to settler contact, Indigenous peoples entering a territory which was not historically theirs, would begin by stating their names, where they come from, their individual intentions for being there, followed with a statement to acknowledge the territory as a sign of respect and accountability, expressing gratitude and appreciation to the people of the territory in which they plan to pass through, visit or stay.

Today, settler Canadians and visitors within Indigenous territories continue this practice for the same reason. During a land acknowledgment, we ask that you pause, be present, be honest, reflect, and consider how you plan to make positive change in your work and everyday lives in order to be respectful visitors within Indigenous lands and territories. It is a moment to reflect on the history of colonialism, and the need to fulfill your responsibilities as treaty people, as Canadians.

Many Canadians still have much to learn about treaties despite their foundational importance to Canada. Whether your ancestors immigrated here, or you are a new Canadian, all people are treaty people. Learn more about Indigenous/newcomer relations: Miller, James Rodger. Compact, contract, covenant: Aboriginal treaty-making in Canada. University of Toronto Press, 2009.

Important Things to Remember:

Fleming is committed to Respectful Relationships with Indigenous People, this includes Indigenous students, staff and community members. As such it is important as members of the Fleming community that you too learn what it means to be a respectful Fleming community member. There are many times at Fleming that you will have the opportunity to learn, participate and engage with Indigenous people, Knowledge, and community. You may feel awkward and sometimes out of place, these few tips are meant to give you general information and encourage you to respectfully ask questions or engage in discussions with Indigenous people & community at Fleming and in the greater community. This list is not everything, but it will give you a starting point, if you are ever unsure about your interpretation of what is going on or if you can participate, ask your host or member of the Indigenous Perspectives Team, they will appreciate your care and concern.

- It is very important to be present in a non-judgemental way. If given the opportunity to participate in a practice or ceremony, for example, in a 'smudge' and it contradicts your own spiritual or religious beliefs, you may politely decline, saying "No, Thank you."
- Ask permission to record or take a picture of an Indigenous practice, place or people, prior to doing it. Be prepared for different answers, some individuals may be okay with recordings or pictures, others may not. Each Nation, Territory and individual have their own beliefs and you should ask every time.
- Sharing and generosity is an important part of Indigenous culture. This includes food and beverages. Often times, Indigenous hosts will provide food or drinks to visitors and guests. It is polite to accept these gifts but also acceptable to decline and explain that you may have dietary restrictions whether it is for health reasons or lifestyle choice. Honesty is always the best practice! If you simply find the thought of eating something strange or new to your regular lifestyle, for example 'bannock', try to be adventurous and try it or accept a piece to try later.

Indigenous Perspective Designation

How can you add an Indigenous Perspective designation to your diploma?

The Indigenous Perspectives Designation (IPD) is replacing the Indigenous Emphasis Initiative formerly offered at Fleming College. The purpose of the IPD is to provide students who choose to access this optional learning with a more in-depth knowledge of Indigenous (First Nations, Métis and Inuit) peoples, their cultures, histories, traditions and contributions to our shared society.

What do students gain by completing the IPD?

After graduation, students with an IPD have a strong foundational knowledge on relevant competencies in their discipline relating to Indigenous peoples in Canada. An imperative piece of the Indigenous Perspectives Designation is community engagement. Students attend and participate in Indigenous events, initiatives and activities, which gives students the opportunity to promote respectful relationships, applied learning and professional partnerships. Students graduate with the ability to distinguish the historical and contemporary Nation-to-Nation relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples, synthesize key foundational concepts of Indigenous knowledge, thought and world-views, and articulate relevant events, situations and issues within the shared history of Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples. For more information about the Indigenous Perspectives Designation, please visit:

Peterborough

Lindsay

Population: 22,367

Situated approximately 43 km (about 26.72 mi) west of Peterborough, Lindsay is the hub for business and commerce. It's a student-friendly community that offers numerous opportunities to get out and explore in all four seasons.

Haliburton

Populations: 23,500

Haliburton is known as the tourist and cottage area in Central Ontario. It has a beautiful landscape; it is home to talented artists and just 20 minutes from Sir Sam's Skill Hill.

Campus Culture

Fleming College is comprised of 3 different main campuses, Sutherland in Peterborough, Frost in Lindsay, and Haliburton School of Art + Design in Haliburton, all situated in the province of Ontario. Each campus will provide students with a unique culture and diverse focus. Please read below to get an idea of what life on each campus will be like.

SUTHERLAND

Sutherland is Fleming College's largest and most dynamic campus, home to around 5,000 students from diverse cultures and backgrounds. It's a buzzing, multicultural environment where there's always something happening — and always someone new to meet.

Here, learning goes beyond the classroom. Whether you're diving into real-world experiences, joining in on vibrant campus activities, or making a difference through volunteering, Sutherland offers countless ways to grow academically and personally.

Our faculty are more than educators — they're passionate, experienced professionals who truly care about your success. With an open-door policy and a student-first mindset, they're always here to support you.

Need a break between classes? Wander our scenic walking trails, kick back on our outdoor sports fields, or stay active at the Wellness Centre with fitness programs and recreational classes. At Sutherland, there's never a dull moment and never a shortage of opportunities to get involved, stay active, and build lasting friendships.

FROST

At Fleming College's Frost Campus, you'll find more than just a school — you'll join a passionate, tight-knit community of environmentally driven students and professionals from around the world. Whether you're fresh out of high school, shifting careers, returning to school as a mature student, or coming from abroad, you'll feel right at home among others who share your commitment to making a difference.

Learn from expert faculty who bring real-world experience in aquaculture, habitat and wildlife restoration, waste and forestry management, mining, and beyond. Located in the scenic town of Lindsay, Ontario, Frost is known as one of Canada's top environmental campuses — where the outdoors is your classroom.

Here, muddy boots and field notebooks replace desks and whiteboards. You'll spend more time exploring forests, wetlands, and ecosystems than sitting inside, all while building lifelong friendships and the hands-on skills to thrive in your future career.

HALIBURTON SCHOOL OF ART + DESIGN

The town of Haliburton is a welcoming and inspiring community that has long attracted artists from across disciplines, drawn by its creative energy and breathtaking natural beauty. Nestled by Head Lake and surrounded by the enchanting Haliburton Sculpture Forest, this is a place where inspiration flows freely, and creativity knows no bounds.

Fleming College's Haliburton School of Art + Design is a small, close-knit community of passionate creatives. Here, you'll learn alongside like-minded artists in an environment that fosters exploration, self-expression, and growth. Our exceptional faculty — recognized leaders in art, craft, design, and media — have helped shape Canada's creative culture and are dedicated to mentoring the next generation of artistic professionals.

With the widest range of creative programming offered by any college in Canada, Haliburton is a place where your artistic vision is nurtured, challenged, and brought to life.

Information Technology Tips for new students

Fleming Technology Guide contains information about setting up the basic technology products and services commonly used by Fleming students. After reading this guide you will be well-prepared with the technology needed for learning at Fleming College. Download the guide at <https://department.flemingcollege.ca/its/technology-guide-for-students/>

MULTI-FACTOR AUTHENTICATOR (MFA)

It is a way to confirm your identity when you try to sign in. If you are enrolled with a cell phone number from your country only, and you have no more access to your number once you move to Canada, you will not be able to access services that use MFA without that number.

It is recommended to setup two methods, the text method, and the app. If you only setup the app or use your international number for text and you change devices or your number when you arrive in Canada, you will not be able to access your account without a secondary method. Please review MFA Setup:

<https://department.flemingcollege.ca/its/mfa/>

PRINTING

All students should review and understand printing information on this page:

<https://department.flemingcollege.ca/its/printinghelp/>

It covers how to add print credits and how the printing is charged. When sending a printing job to a printer, make sure to check the printing machine number (label in front of the machine or the room where the machine is located) before sending your job.

Important: If you send a job and it didn't come out or the printer displays a paper jam or other error, do not touch the printer. Instead, report it to the service desk. Also note that the paper size A4 and A3 are not supported. We only use letter and legal sizes. In addition, do not change the printer settings.

myCAMPUS PORTAL

The myCampus Portal is an internal website that can be accessed from Fleming's main web page. It's a one-stop shop for all services that you as a student will require.

From the Fleming College website <http://flemingcollege.ca/>, click on the MyCampus Login link found in the top right corner of the webpage. Alternatively, you can go directly to the MyCampus Portal using the following URL:
<https://mycampus.flemingcollege.ca/>

If this is your first time accessing an authenticated Fleming college service you will not have a username. To obtain your Fleming College username, use the New to Fleming? feature located on the MyCampus login page. This process requires you to provide your date of birth and student number. After completing this authentication process, you will receive a personalized message detailing your Fleming college username and email address. Your default password follows the pattern #####YYMM where ##### is the last 4-digits of your student number, YY is your 2-digit year of birth, and MM is your 2-digit month of birth (01 – 12).

The homepage features your weekly schedule, Fleming news, upcoming events, Registrar's Office notices, the academic schedule dates, and important College-wide announcements during special circumstances, such as school closures and I.T. service notices.

Steps to Academic Success

Being successful in your studies does not mean being perfect. It means being organized, responsible, and asking for help when you need it. One of the most important skills is time management. Read your course outlines carefully and write down all important dates. Use a calendar to track assignment deadlines, tests, NARS requirement deadline, and assignments due dates. Start your work early so you are not rushing at the last minute.

Respecting deadlines is very important. If you submit assignments late, you may lose marks or receive a zero. Missing too many deadlines can lower your Grade Point Average (GPA) and may cause you to fail a course. This can delay your graduation.

If you are in a health related program, you will be required to meet Non-Academic Requirements (NARS) deadlines and placement requirements on time. NARS documents expire and need to be renewed every semester. If you do not complete NARS or submit required placement documents before the deadline, you may not be allowed to go to placement that semester.. You may need to take an extra semester, which means paying additional tuition fees and having to extend your study and co-op work permits to cover for the entire duration of your program. This can cost extra money and take time to process. Check if your program requires NARS Requirements by Program | Non Academic Requirements

You are not alone in your studies. Many support services are available to help you succeed (see next page). Tutoring services can help you understand course material and improve your grades. Academic Success Coaches can help you with time management, study skills, and goal setting. Your faculty and program coordinator can explain academic rules, placement requirements, and course content. International Student Services help you understand your immigration conditions and supports you in your journey. If you are confused or worried, contact supports available early.

Accessible Education Services (AES) offers supports to improve accessibility at the college for all disabled students so they can have a positive and equitable learning experience.

Accessibility counsellors work with students with disabilities, including students who had an IEP in high school, who have a mental health condition like depression or anxiety, even if they do not currently have documentation. Accessibility counsellors work with students with disabilities to provide them with the accommodation they need to level the playing field and eliminate barriers. Accessibility counsellors also connect disabled students with supports that help them to build skills, strategies, and resources to make the most of college.

All counselling services are available to Fleming students at no extra cost. Services are offered virtually or in-person: Monday to Friday 9am-4pm with some evening appointments available. Counselling services are closed on weekends and holidays.

Groups and Workshops are offered at various times throughout the semester. Some past topics include Resilience, Anxiety, Coping with Stress and Mindfulness. Refer to your student dashboard for upcoming events.

Clubs

JOINING A CLUB OR STARTING A NEW CLUB ARE AVAILABLE AT SAC AND FSA

Giving your mind a break from the stress of studying and working on assignments is beneficial. While it may be hard for you to get involved on campus because of work and other commitments, if you do have the time in your schedule, joining or creating your own club maybe your answer. Here are 5 reasons why it's a great idea!

Find New Friends - Joining clubs are a great way to meet new people. You're automatically connected to students that have similar interests.

You Get to Network - Joining student organizations are a great place to meet people who could be working in your future profession. Whether it's through a club or networking session, it's always good to connect. These connections can potentially benefit students when the time comes to apply for internships or jobs.

You'll Get to Work with Diverse Groups of People - When joining a club there's no doubt that you'll be working with various types of people. This is a great way to help you prepare for the real working world. Learning the various personality types and how different people handle certain situations is important. You will also learn the importance of teamwork.

It Looks Great on Your Resume - This is definitely true if the club you join relates to your future profession. If you're a political science major, get involved with the Student Council or school elections. Although it's not professional experience, every bit counts! Being a part of a club on top of having classes full-time shows that you have this quality.

You'll have FUN! Although clubs add to your list of things to do for the day, it helps reduce stress because you are doing fun activities. It feels more of a treat to yourself for working so hard on all your assignments. Whether it's learning new skills, meeting new people or simply having fun, getting involved on your campus will help make your college experience much more enjoyable.

Fun and Canadian Weather

Canada is a beautiful country. There are lots to explore and fun things to do in each of the 4 distinct seasons in Peterborough, Lindsay, and Haliburton areas. As a new visitor to Canada, pay attention to signages, rules and warnings when visiting places. If you don't know, ask someone, or visit the City of Peterborough, Lindsay and County of Haliburton before going out. For information on parks and things to do, please visit:

- City of Peterborough: <https://www.peterborough.ca/en/index.aspx>
- City of Kawartha Lakes (Lindsay): <https://www.kawarthalakes.ca/en/index.aspx>
- County of Haliburton: <https://www.haliburtoncounty.ca/en/index.aspx>

Spring

Spring usually begins in March and is an unpredictable season of change. It is comprised of a mix of rain and sunshine and the average Temperature is 3°C to 16°C.

There is so much to do in the spring but be prepared to dress accordingly as it is a bit chilly. A light or medium jacket may do the trick.

Many cycling enthusiasts start cycling way before spring, but it is a perfect time to visit trails and enjoy the outdoors. There are lots of biking trails that wind through the cities of Peterborough, Lindsay and Haliburton. You are always close to nature. Find out more about trails in your region: <https://www.alltrails.com/canada/ontario>

Spring is a season to enjoy gardening, while observing the nature waking up for life, and that includes bears. Make sure to read signs and stay safe. Read about the area you are visiting to be prepared and have an enjoyable time.

Summer

The season begins in June, and it is warm and sunny. Watch out for the Humidex factor. If going outside, you should consider applying sunscreen to prevent your skin from burning. The average Temperature is 20°C to 30°C.

You will see that everyone is outside and neglect a bit of their house cleaning. It is because everyone is waiting for this time of the year to be outdoors and enjoy everything nature has to offer. Parks and water parks will be open, and people will be going to their cottages. You should also be out and about.

Summer is also time to go canoeing and on boat cruises. The Canal and the world's highest hydraulic lift lock, The Peterborough Lift Lock, located in Peterborough, was built in 1904, it raises boats travelling along the Trent Severn Waterway almost 20 meters to the river above.

Another great attraction is the Peterborough Zoo, Riverview Park and Zoo on Water Street North, which has been considered the best small zoos in Canada and is free. Besides visiting the animals, you can plan for a family picnic, bring a round of disc golf, or other fun games with your friends.

Take advantage of free events by visiting your city's website. Check out the Peterborough Musicfest at Del Crary Park, and festivals in and around your area.

The Otonabee River is a river in Peterborough County in Central Ontario, Canada. The river flows from Katchewanooka Lake, at the north end of the community of Lakefield, through the city of Peterborough to Rice Lake. It is in the Great Lakes Basin and forms part of the Trent-Severn Waterway. There are several spots where you can sit and enjoy the view.

The Otonabee River and the Trent Severn Waterway have been known for many drownings over the years. Certain spots are incredibly dangerous for swimming with numerous undercurrents, many of which are unpredictable and can easily pull any swimmer down into its depths. Even very experienced swimmers. Therefore, consider wearing a life jacket.

Find a supervised beach or pool you can swim safely, follow all park restrictions in the area. Visit:

- City of Peterborough: <https://www.peterborough.ca/en/index.aspx>
- City of Kawartha Lakes (Lindsay): <https://www.kawarthalakes.ca/en/index.aspx>
- County of Haliburton: <https://www.haliburtoncounty.ca/en/index.aspx>

Whatever you choose to do, make sure to read warning signs at parks and sites close to rivers and lakes with rules and instructions for swimming and the use of spaces, and be respectful of rules.

Fall (Autumn)

This is a season of Autumn Colors. Fall officially starts in September but temperature can remain quite warm until mid-October. The season can often be cool and rainy with the days getting shorter. The average Temperature is 7°C to 13°C.

Fall or autumn is a wonderful time of the year and is known for its colours. Leaves begin their transformation to stunning shades of orange, red and yellow. Many people travel to watch the changes of colours and travelling is cheaper than summer months.

There are still plenty of outdoor activities like hiking and camping, just to mention a few.

Find out more things to do in your city:

- City of Peterborough: <https://www.peterborough.ca/en/index.aspx>
- City of Kawartha Lakes (Lindsay): City of Kawartha Lakes
- County of Haliburton: County of Haliburton \(haliburtoncounty.ca\)

Winter

The winter officially begins in December, but sometime snow falls in October or November. January and February are the coldest months. It is important to wear appropriate clothing, which can be purchased in Canada. The average temperature is -15°C to 0°C, however, "wind chill" can make it feel colder.

Layer your clothes, wear a hat and mittens, and remember your waterproof jacket, pants and boots. You will be comfortable no matter how cold the temperature is. When checking the weather, pay attention to the wind chill. Wind chill numbers may be lower than the air temperature and, however the temperature may seem nice (0), if the windchill is (-15) you will feel like it's -15.

There are plenty of sports and activities in the Winter: build a snowman, organize a hot cocoa and cookies party with friends and family, go sledding, try ice-skating, build a snow fort, always dressing warm to enjoy the weather.

In Lindsay, Christmas at Ken Reid is an annual free event that includes live music, hot chocolate, horse drawn wagon rides and hundreds of glowing trees that you can hike through.

Canada is the place of beautiful frozen lakes. It is important to check safety tips and signage around the lake. Venturing on a frozen lake is a risky business since ice is never totally safe.

Do not ice-skate on lakes unless it is supervised by the city you live in. There will be signs and flags warning about the safety of the ice. The rule is do not walk or skate on ice if there is no sign saying you are safe to do so.

Canadian Culture

We are a multicultural nation

- What we now call Canada was inhabited for millennia by Indigenous Peoples, now known as First Nations, Métis, and Inuit peoples.
- Two official languages: English and French.
- Today, 40% of Canadian population is non-British and non-French.
- Canada is home to more than 200 mother tongues.
- More than 1 in 5 Canadians are immigrants. About 300,000 new immigrants come to Canada annually
- Canada is huge:
 - 3,855,103 square miles - the second largest country in the world, behind Russia
 - touches the Pacific, Atlantic, and Arctic Oceans
 - 10 Provinces + 3 Territories
 - St John's Newfoundland is closer to the U.K. than to Vancouver

Did you know...?

- Canada's lowest recorded temperature was -63 C in Snag, Yukon in 1947
- Canada has more lakes than the rest of the world combined
- At least 10% of the Canadian population is vegetarian or vegan.
- Canada has 10% of the world's forest
- Around 90% of Canada's land is uninhabited. We are the 9th most sparsely populated nation in the world
- Almost 90% of our population is concentrated within 160 kilometers of the U.S. border
- Our average life expectancy is 82 years
- There are more donut shops in Canada per capita than any other country

Hockey

Children learn to skate at a young age. They play on frozen lakes and ponds with friends. Hockey brings people together and is seen as a national pastime. Take this opportunity to watch a Peterborough Pete's hockey game at the Memorial Centre.

You will also learn that Tim Horton's is a national coffee chain named after a famous Canadian player. Popular orders include Double-Double (coffee with two cream and two sugars) and Timbits (mini-doughnuts bites).

Other Sporting Interests in Canada

Another popular sport in Canada is Lacrosse, which is primarily played during the spring season. Soccer is growing in popularity, but also cricket, which was a national sport in 1867. There are a variety of Fleming Phoenix varsity Teams, including basketball, soccer, volleyball, and Logger sports. Extramural teams are a perfect choice if you want to participate in sports like ice hockey, powerlifting, or cricket. We encourage you to get involved by visiting <https://flemingcollege.ca/student-experience/athletics-and-recreation>

Canadian Etiquette

Canadians line up for everything. They are punctual and are known for apologizing frequently. They do not interrupt when talking to others and wait for their time to speak. They often hold the door for the next person when entering or exiting a building.

Tipping

Tipping is expected in Canadian restaurants, salons, and taxis. A typical tip is 15% or more for services.

Cell Phones

Cell phone plans are the highest in the world. You should make a habit to connect to Wi-Fi as often as possible.

Communicating in Canada

- Canadians like their personal space and are private people
- There is even a level of formality amongst friends
- Canadians are not as open as other people about personal details of their lives, but they will often speak about the weather, work, sports, and some light travel conversation. You may want to avoid talking about salaries, personal finances, emotions, family details, age, marital status, and politics as it can be an uncomfortable topic for Canadians.
- Making eye contact is a sign of respect

Email etiquette Do's:

- Email the correct person or department. Pay attention to the spelling of their name
- Add your complete name and student I.D. in the subject line with one or two words to summarize what you are asking. For example, Completion Letter request or Transcript request
- Explain clearly what you are asking
- Write as if the person is in front of you. Be respectful and watch your language
- Proofread your email, capitalize, correct punctuation and do not use texting abbreviations or emojis

Email etiquette Don'ts:

- Email a lot of people requesting the same thing. You will only create more work for a lot of people when only one person could answer your question
- Leave the subject blank
- Write a long email. Instead, set up an appointment, speak over the phone or in-person if there are many details to be discussed
- Use exclamation marks, which may indicate you are angry or yelling
- Treat an email as text. Do not use texting abbreviations or emojis. This could be the email that will land you an important interview or your next job. Always be professional.

The Weather

- Canadians are obsessed with the weather!
- It is our favourite conversation topic
- Weather patterns vary widely from province to province, season to season, day to day
- The capital of Canada, Ottawa, is the second coldest capital in the world!

Weather

Location	Coldest Month	Average temperature (max/min)	Warmest Month	Average temperature (max/min)

Canadian Money

To mark the coronation of King Charles II, you may encounter new coins and $20 banknote updated with the new monarch's image, replacing the image of Queen Elizabeth.

8. What's Academic Integrity?

Academic Integrity is "a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to six fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility and courage. From these values flow principles of behaviour that enable academic communities to translate ideals to action" (ICAI, Fundamental Values Project, 1999).

As a member of the Fleming College community, you "have the responsibility to be honest with respect to academic matters and to be honest when dealing with members of the College community." The college recognizes that academic integrity violations may occur intentionally or unintentionally, so it is important for everyone to understand the various types of violations and how to avoid them.

Breaches of Academic Integrity (such as cheating or plagiarism) are taken very seriously, will be dealt with accordingly. Penalties range from a deduction of marks to failing a course which may impact your academic performance and/or your status as a temporary resident in Canada. Make sure you are familiar with the Academic Integrity policy and take time to participate in the educational opportunities offered through the library.

11. My children are accompanying me to Canada. Where can I find Daycare or babysitting and how much does it cost?

Students should plan that it is extremely challenging to find childcare for small children when they come to Canada to study (2+ years waitlists).

Cost and waiting time depend on the age of the child (infant, toddler, pre-school ages) and type of spot (licensed/unlicensed).

Children cannot be enrolled in school until they are 4.

Parents with older children who can't stay home alone should also consider they may need childcare during summer months (July and August - typically camps) and factor in this cost.

To learn more about childcare, please see Childcare in Peterborough - Information sheet for Trent/Fleming International Students - Google Docs (Peterborough) and Finding Quality Child Care - City of Kawartha Lakes (Lindsay and Haliburton).

12. How much does the bus fare cost in Peterborough, Lindsay, and Haliburton?

For Sutherland (Peterborough) students only: If you have your One Card, you do not need to pay for the bus fare. However, if you arrive in Canada and do not have a One Card, yet, you should have the exact change when taking the bus. If you want to purchase bus passes for family members or friends, visit the Bus Terminal downtown or Lansdowne Place Information booth (note: they only accept cash at this location). In Peterborough, a single ride costs $3.

For Frost (Lindsay) students only: While there is no yearly pass for the Lindsay Transportation system, there is a monthly pass that costs $60 dollars for students (instead of $70) that can be bought at the public library. In addition, students can buy bus tokens at several locations that cost $2 instead of the single ride price of $2.25 when you pay it in cash.

In Lindsay, all routes operate Monday to Saturday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., and Sundays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. There are no services on statutory holidays.

Haliburton does not have a bus system, but you can use the ride-sharing option by contacting the local taxi company Hyland Taxi at 705-457-1777.

13. How do I dress for Winter?

Dressing for winter in Canada requires layering, choosing the right materials, and investing in quality winter gear to stay warm and comfortable in freezing temperatures.

Key Principles of Dressing for Canadian Winter

Layering is Essential

Base Layer: Start with thermal underwear or moisture-wicking fabrics that retain heat and keep you dry. Avoid cotton, as it retains moisture and can make you colder.

Mid Layer: Add insulating layers like fleece or wool sweaters to trap heat. This layer can be adjusted based on activity level and temperature changes.

Outer Layer: Choose a waterproof and windproof winter coat that covers your hips. Look for features like insulation, adjustable hoods, and storm flaps to protect against harsh weather. 3 Sources

Footwear: Invest in high-quality winter boots that are insulated and waterproof. Look for boots with good traction to navigate icy conditions. Brands like Bogs and Columbia are recommended for their functionality and warmth.

Hats and Gloves: A significant amount of body heat is lost through the head, so wear a warm hat. Insulated gloves or mittens are crucial for keeping your hands warm. Consider earmuffs for additional ear protection.

Scarves: Use scarves to protect your neck and face from cold winds. A thick, knitted scarf can provide extra warmth.

Stay Dry: Ensure your clothing is moisture-wicking to prevent sweat buildup, which can lead to chilling. Waterproof outer layers are essential to keep you dry from snow and rain.

Consider the Weather: Be aware of the specific winter conditions in the region you are in. For example, temperatures can vary significantly from coastal areas to the prairies or northern regions, so adjust your clothing accordingly.

Sunscreen: Don't forget sunscreen for exposed skin, as UV rays can still be strong in winter, especially with the reflection off snow.
