

CAAT Job Evaluation System for Non-Bargaining Unit Employees

Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology

The Job Fact Sheet Questionnaire (JFS) is used to gather information for job evaluation purposes for the Colleges= Administrative Staff, Part-Time Support Staff, Part-Time and Sessional Academic Staff positions. Please read each section carefully before completing.

The Education and Experience sections are to be completed by the College according to the College's recruitment standards.

Upon completion by an incumbent, the JFS is reviewed and, when necessary, adjusted by the position's Manager and the Senior Manager responsible for the position. Any changes to the JFS are to be reviewed with the incumbent prior to evaluation. The JFS is then submitted to the appropriate College official for job evaluation purposes.

The JFS is not finalized until it has gone through the job evaluation process and the results have been confirmed by the College. A copy of the finalized JFS will be provided the incumbent for information purposes and as a job description.

4. INITIATIVE - INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION

Initiative - Independence of action refers to the amount of responsibility inherent in a position and the degree of freedom that an incumbent has to initiate or take action to complete the requirements of the position. An incumbent is required to foresee activities and decisions to be made, then take the appropriate action(s) to ensure successful outcomes. This factor recognizes the established levels of authority which may restrict the incumbent=s ability to initiate or take action, e.g., obtaining direction or approval from a supervisor, reliance on established procedures/methods of operation or professional practices/standards, and/or built-in-controls dictated by computer/ management systems.

Briefly describe up to three typical job duties/types of decisions that the incumbent is required to perform using their initiative without first having to obtain direction or approval from a supervisor.

- Management of day-to-day School operations and resources: human, fiscal and physical.
- Conduct evaluations and provide performance management (feedback, recognition, coaching, development, disciplinary action, as warranted) for all faculty

- Collective agreements and memoranda of understanding
- Terms and conditions of employment
- Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities directives, procedures, memos, etc.
- Advisory committee guidelines
- Various legislation including, freedom of information, workplace safety,
- Program-specific legislation

5. POTENTIAL IMPACT OF DECISIONS

Potential Impact of Decisions recognizes the potential consequences that errors in judgement made by an incumbent, despite due care, could have on the College. Usually, the higher the level of accountability inherent in a position, the greater the potential consequences there are on the College from errors in judgement.

Give up to three examples of the typical types of errors in judgement that an incumbent could make in performing the requirements of the position. Do not describe errors which could occur as a result of poor performance, or ones that are rare or extreme. Indicate the probable effects of those errors on the College, e.g., loss of reputation of program/College, waste of resources, financial losses, injury, property damage, affects on staff, students, clients or public.

- Assigning teaching to faculty beyond the parameters of the Collective Agreements or local Memoranda of Understanding could result in grievances and negatively impact overall labour relations at the College
- Inappropriate decisions or lack of sensitivity to individuals/groups could seriously harm relations with students and staff, negatively impact overall quality of academic programs, and could lead to poor morale, motivation, grievances, reduced revenue resulting from withdrawal from programs.
- Budget over-expenditure results in financial loss to the college
- Failure to apply due diligence in the development, maintenance and implementation of health and safety procedures and processes and ensuring that employees are consistently working in compliance with health and safety regulations could result in serious injuries as well as legal and financial repercussions for the college.

6. CONTACTS AND WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Contacts and Working Relationships refers to the types, importance and intended outcomes of the contacts and working relationships required by an incumbent to perform the responsibilities of a position. It also measures the skill level required to be effective in dealing with contacts and being involved in working relationships. This factor does not focus on the level of the contact, but on the nature of the contact.

Indicate by job title, with whom an incumbent is required to interact to perform the duties and responsibilities of the positions. Describe the nature, purpose and frequency of the interaction, e.g., exchanging information, teaching, conflict resolution, team consultation, counselling.

Contacts	Contacts by Job Title	Nature and Purpose of Contact	Frequency of Contact
			Occasion	Frequent
Internal to the College, e.g., students, staff, management, colleagues.	Faculty, Program/Discipline Coordinators, other Academic Chairs, Academic Chair Assistant, Technicians/ Technologists, Other support staff, (Other Leader(s) (if applicable)	Regular two-way communications; motivation; workload assignment; curriculum development; problem solving; coaching and development; etc.		X

X Other e.g., counselling, coaching. Please specify: Coaching faculty and students in times of conflict resolution

* Includes management responsibilities for hiring, assignment of duties and work to be performed, performance management, and recommending the termination of staff.

Specify staff (by title) or groups who are supervised/given functional guidance by an incumbent.

Full-time and contract faculty

7b. SPAN OF CONTROL

Span of Control is complementary to Character of Supervision/Functional Guidance. Span of Control refers to the total number of staff for which the position has supervisory responsibility, (i.e., subordinates, plus all staff reporting to these subordinates).

Enter the total number of full time and full time equivalent staff reporting through to the position. Also identify the number of staff for whom the position has indirect responsibility (contract for service), if applicable.

Type of Staff	Number of Staff
Full-Time Staff	32
Non Full Time Staff (FTE) *	35
Contract for Service 	n/a
Total:	67

 Full Time Equivalency (FTE) conversions for non full time staff are as follows:

Academic Staff

Identify the total average annual teaching hours taught by all non-full time teachers (part-time, partial load and sessional) for which the position is accountable and divide by 648 hours for postsecondary teachers and 760 hours for non-postsecondary teachers.

Support Staff

Identify the total average annual hours worked by part-time support staff for which the position is accountable and divide by 1820 hours.

Administrative Staff

Identify the total average annual hours worked by nonfull time administrative staff for which the position is accountable and divide by 1820 hours.

 Contract for Services

When considering contracts for services, review the nature of the contractual arrangements to determine the degree of supervisory responsibility the position has for contract employees. This could range from no credit for supervising staff when the contracting company takes full responsibility for all staffing issues to prorated credit for supervising staff when the position is required to handle the initial step(s) when contract staffing issues arise.

8. PHYSICAL AND SENSORY DEMANDS

Physical/Sensory Demands considers the degree and severity of exertion associated with the position. The factor considers the intensity and severity of the physical effort rather than the strength or energy needed to perform the task. It also considers the sensory attention required by the job as well as the frequency of that effort and the length of time spent on tasks that cause sensory fatigue.

Identify the types of physical and/or sensory demands that are required by an incumbent. Indicate the frequency of the physical demands as well as the frequency and duration of the sensory demands. Use the frequency and duration definitions following the tables to assist with the descriptions.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate the physical effort that is required in the position on a regular basis, i.e., sitting, standing, walking, climbing, lifting and/or carrying light, medium or heavy objects, pushing, pulling, working in an awkward position or maintaining one position for a long period of time.

Types of Activities that Demonstrate Physical Effort Required	Frequency (note definitions below)
	Occasional	Moderate	Considerable	Extended	Continuous
Sitting				X
Standing		X

SENSORY DEMANDS

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate the sensory effort that is required in the position on a concentrated basis, i.e., reading information/data without interruption, inputting data, report writing, operating a computer or calculator, fine electrical or mechanical work, taking minutes of meetings, counselling, tasting, smelling etc.

Types of Activities that Demonstrate Sensory Effort Required	Frequency (note definitions below)					Duration
	Occasional	Moderate	Considerable	Extended	Continuous	Short Intermediate or Long
Counselling employees and students to assist with problem resolution		X				I
Assimilating information and report writing				X		L
Reading and analyzing large volumes of information, data, reports				X		L
Constant interruptions and shifting priorities				X		S

FREQUENCY:

Occasional:	Occurs once in a while, sporadically.
Moderate:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis for up to a quarter of the work period.
Considerable:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis for up to a half of the work period.
Extended:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis for up to three-quarters of the work period.
Continuous:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis throughout the entire work period except for regulated breaks.

DURATION:

Short:	Up to one hour at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.
Intermediate:	More than one hour and up to two hours at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.
Long:	More than two hours at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.

9. WORKING CONDITIONS

Working Conditions considers the frequency and type of exposure to undesirable, disagreeable environmental conditions or hazards, under which the work is performed.

Describe any unpleasant environmental conditions and work hazards that the incumbent is exposed to during the performance of the job.

Environment

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate exposure to unpleasant environmental conditions in the day-to-day activities that are required in the job on a regular basis, e.g., exposure to dirt, chemical substances, grease, extreme temperatures, odours, noise, travel, verbal abuse, body fluid, etc. Indicate the activity as well as the frequency of exposure to undesirable working conditions.

Types of Activities That Involve Job Related Unpleasant Environmental Conditions	Frequency (note definitions below)
	Occasional	Frequent	Continuous
Travel – intercampus, regional, provincial	X
Evening and weekend work			X
Verbal abuse from students, parents	X

Hazards

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate the hazards in the day-to-day activities that are required in the job on a regular basis, e.g. chemical substance, electrical shocks, acids, noise, exposure to infectious disease, violence, body fluids, etc. Indicate the activity as well as the frequency of exposure to hazards.

Types of Activities That Involve Job Related Hazards	Frequency (note definitions below)
	Occasional	Frequent	Continuous

Frequency:

Occasional	Occurs once in a while, sporadically.
Frequent	Occurs regularly throughout the work period.
Continuous	Occurs regularly, on an ongoing basis, throughout most of the work period.
