CAAT Job Evaluation System for Non-Bargaining Unit Employees

Sir Sandford Fleming College

Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology

The Job Fact Sheet Questionnaire (JFS) is used to gather information for job evaluation purposes for the Colleges= Administrative Staff, Part-Time Support Staff, Part-Time and Sessional Academic Staff positions. Please read each section carefully before completing.

The Education and Experience sections are to be completed by the College according to the College's recruitment standards.

Upon completion by an incumbent, the JFS is reviewed and, when necessary, adjusted by the position=s Manager and the Senior Manager responsible for the position. Any changes to the JFS are to be reviewed with the incumbent prior to evaluation. The JFS is then submitted to the appropriate College official for job evaluation purposes.

The JFS is not finalized until it has gone through the job evaluation process and the results have been confirmed by the College. A copy of the finalized JFS will be provided the incumbent for information purposes and as a job description.

4. INITIATIVE - INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION

Initiative - Independence of action refers to the amount of responsibility inherent in a position and the degree of freedom that an incumbent has to initiate or take action to complete the requirements of the position. An incumbent is required to foresee activities and decisions to be made, then take the appropriate action(s) to ensure successful outcomes. This factor recognizes the established levels of authority which may restrict the incumbent=s ability to initiate or take action, e.g., obtaining direction or approval from a supervisor, reliance on established procedures/methods of operation or professional practices/standards, and/or built-in-controls dictated by computer/ management systems.

Briefly describe up to three typical job duties/types of decisions that the incumbent is required to perform using their initiative without first having to obtain direction or approval from a supervisor.

- Decisions related to processes and procedures required to ensure that peak and valley customer service demands are accommodated and staffed properly.
- Decisions regarding customer service communication strategies to ensure that students and parents, the public and college staff receive accurate information to resolve their inquiries, process new/revised academic changes and facilitate problem resolution with students and staff.
- Develops priorities for the Customer Service area including finance and human resource management in a changing environment.

Briefly describe up to three typical job duties/types of decisions that the incumbent is required to perform which requires the direction or approval from a supervisor.

- Serious staff disciplinary issues are made in conjunction with the Registrar.
- Major budgetary decisions would be made in conjunction with the Registrar to ensure that the needs of the entire Registrar's Office are being fulfilled.
- Significant changes to RO Customer Service Standard Operating Procedures (SOP)

Give specific examples of guidelines, procedures, manuals (formal or informal), computer systems/programs that are used in performing job duties and in making decisions, e.g., Government regulations, professional or trade standards, College policies or procedures, department or program procedures, computerized/manual programs/systems and any other defined methods or procedures.

5. POTENTIAL IMPACT OF DECISIONS

Potential Impact of Decisions recognizes the potential consequences that errors in judgement made by an incumbent, despite due care, could have on the College. Usually, the higher the level of accountability inherent in a position, the greater the potential consequences there are on the College from errors in judgement.

Give up to three examples of the typical types of errors in judgement that an incumbent could make in performing the requirements of the position. Do not describe errors which could occur as a result of poor performance, or ones that are rare or extreme. Indicate the probable effects of those errors on the College, e.g., loss of reputation of program/College, waste of resources, financial losses, injury, property damage, affects on staff, students, clients or public.

- Failure to recognize the interconnectedness of all modules in the student information system could result in the implementation of processes/procedures that negatively impact other modules such as Student Financials or Admissions. The initial impact of such a change may not be easily identified or quickly noticed, resulting in anomalies in processes at a later date which require investigation and analysis to determine the root cause.
- Failure to recognize the value and importance of customer service and inclusivity to college students could lead to decreased enrolments and loss of reputation.
- An inaccurate interpretation of college policy could result in incorrect information being given to students. This could have a far reaching impact on the Academic Schools, new and returning students.

6. CONTACTS AND WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Contacts and Working Relationships refers to the types, importance and intended outcomes of the contacts and working relationships required by an incumbent to perform the responsibilities of a position. It also measures the skill level required to be effective in dealing with contacts and being involved in working relationships. This factor does not focus on the level of the contact, but on the nature of the contact.

Indicate by job title, with whom an incumbent is required to interact to perform the duties and responsibilities of the positions. Describe the nature, purpose and frequency of the interaction, e.g., exchanging information, teaching, conflict resolution, team consultation, counselling.
