Position Summary

Provide a concise description of the overall purpose of the position.

Reporting to the Manager, International Student Services and English Programs, the incumbent provides front line reception assistance and is the first point of contact for visitors to the International Department. The incumbent answers varying questions from international students pertaining to health insurance, general immigration questions, bursaries and scholarships, and housing. The incumbent assesses students' needs and then refers students to the appropriate resource such as: International Student Advisors, Counselling and Health Services, Student Clubs, the Library, and the Registrar's Office.

The incumbent works with the International Student Services team to assist with the planning and implementation of international student orientation, the arrival services program, international student receptions and cultural celebrations, immigration workshops and information sessions, field trips, and other identified programming within the department.

The incumbent coordinates logistics associated with international student employee hiring within the International department. The incumbent provides International Student employment Plan (ISEP) administrative support by tracking hiring details and appointment letters.

The incumbent coordinates the International Health Insurance Plan, including enrolling students, reconciling invoices, assisting with claim submission, and liaising with benefits plan office about complex student claims.

The incumbent supports the International Recruitment team in the applicant conversion process and in tracking the visa status of incoming students.

The incumbent provides administrative support in a fast paced, technology-based department.

5. Guiding/Advising Others

This section describes the assigned responsibility of the position to guide or advise others (e.g., other employees, students). Focus on the actions taken (rather than the communication skills) that directly assist others in the performance of their work or skill development.

Though Support Staff cannot formally "supervise" others, there may be a requirement to guide others using the incumbent's job expertise. This is beyond being helpful and providing ad hoc advice. It must be an assigned responsibility and must assist or enable others to be able to complete their own tasks.

Check the box(es) that best describe the level of responsibility assigned to the position and provide an example(s) to support the selection, including the positions that the incumbent guides or advises.

Regular & Recurring	Occasional	Level	Example
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Minimal requirement to guide/advise others. The incumbent may be required to explain procedures to other employees or students.	The incumbent provides front desk support and regularly responds to student inquiries

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	The incumbent is an active participant and has ongoing involvement in the progress of others with whom he/she has the responsibility to demonstrate correct processes/procedures or provide direction.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The incumbent is responsible for allocating tasks to others and recommending a course of action or making necessary decisions to ensure the tasks are completed.	Shared oversight (with other International team members) of student employees, placement students, and orientation volunteers is required. The incumbent trains, monitors, and allocates tasks/deadlines to student workers and/or volunteers so that they can perform their job duties.

6. Independence of Action

Please illustrate the type of independence or autonomy exercised in the position. Consideration is to be given to the degree of freedom and constraints that define the parameters in which the incumbent works.

What are the instructions that are typically required or provided at the beginning of a work assignment?
Regular and Recurring	Occasional (if none, please strike out this section)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Minimal instructions. All information gathering is done independently by the incumbent.</li> <li>• General departmental objective setting. ### 7. Service Delivery

This section looks at the service relationship that is an assigned requirement of the position. It considers the required manner in which the position delivers service to customers. It is not intended to examine the incumbent's interpersonal relationship with those customers and the normal anticipation of what customers want and then supplying it efficiently. It considers how the request for service is received and the degree to which the position is required to design and fulfil the service requirement. A "customer" is defined in the broadest sense as a person or groups of people and can be internal or external to the College.

In the table below, list the key service(s) and its associated customers. Describe how the request for service is received by the incumbent, how the service is carried out and the frequency.

Information on the service		Customer	Frequency (D, W, M. I)*
How is it received?	How is it carried out?
Students and staff wanting information about the International Department or assistance making appointments	Incumbent assists with appointment bookings in Outlook  Other information and appropriate referrals made in response to inquiries.	Students and staff	D
Customers making general inquiries at counter, by phone or email about College practices and services.	Incumbent uses, past practice, knowledge of College policies and practices and reference material to answer questions and make appropriate referrals	Students and staff	D

front-line contact person; therefore, all inquiries are initially handled by the incumbent	- most of the service requests are straight forward with an established process on how to proceed (e.g., how I withdraw from a course); at other times the incumbent asks questions of the client to ensure a full understanding of a problem, issue or question	Students and staff	D

* D = Daily W = Weekly M = Monthly I = Infrequently

8. Communication

In the table below indicate the type of communication skills required to deal effectively with others. Be sure to list both verbal (e.g., exchanging information, formal presentations) and written (e.g., initiate memos, reports, proposals) in the section(s) that best describes the method of communication.

Communication Skill/Method	Example	Audience	Frequency (D, W, M, I)*
