5. Guiding/Advising Others

This section describes the assigned responsibility of the position to guide or advise others (e.g. other employees, students). Focus on the actions taken (rather than the communication skills) that directly assist others in the performance of their work or skill development.

Though Support Staff cannot formally "supervise" others, there may be a requirement to guide others using the incumbent's job expertise. This is beyond being helpful and providing ad hoc advice. It must be an assigned responsibility and must assist or enable others to be able to complete their own tasks.

Check the box(es) that best describe the level of responsibility assigned to the position and provide an example(s) to support the selection, including the positions that the incumbent guides or advises.

Regular & Recurring	Occasional	Level	Example
X	<input type="checkbox"/>	Minimal requirement to guide/advise others. The incumbent may be required to explain procedures to other employees or students.	Counselling protocols and types of services available

There is a need for the incumbent to demonstrate correct processes/ procedures to others so that they can complete specific tasks.

The incumbent recommends a course of action or makes decisions so that others can perform their day-to-day activities.

The incumbent is an active participant and has ongoing involvement in the progress of others with whom he/she has the responsibility to demonstrate correct processes/procedures or provide direction.

The incumbent is responsible for allocating tasks to others and recommending a course of action or making necessary decisions to ensure the tasks are completed.

6. Independence of Action

Please illustrate the type of independence or autonomy exercised in the position. Consideration is to be given to the degree of freedom and constraints that define the parameters in which the incumbent works.

What are the instructions that are typically required or provided at the beginning of a work assignment?
Regular and Recurring	Occasional (if none, please strike out this section)
Minimal instructions. All information gathering is done independently by the incumbent. General departmental objective setting. Existing policies and practices. All other work is self-directed In the face of crisis or high stress situations must maintain a welcoming, calm and caring presence When in doubt in a situation seek input and direction from Counsellors, Manager of Counselling or Director

What rules, procedures, past practices or guidelines are available to guide the incumbent?
Regular and Recurring	Occasional (if none, please strike out this section)
There are a number of guidelines to which staff refer in any given context. These include the Academic Regulations, Admissions policies and procedures, and established department practices. Despite this, there are few textbook answers to the types of questions the incumbent will be asked. The incumbent is involved in developing and documenting procedures as they evolve.

How is work reviewed or verified (eg. feedback from others, work processes, Supervisor)?
Regular and Recurring	Occasional (if none, please strike out this section)
Day to day issues are handled, as required.
This position works closely with Counsellors, Manager of Counselling and the Director.
Complaints brought to the attention of the Director are dealt with as appropriate.
Annual Performance Evaluation provides a mechanism to review work.

6. Independence of Action

7. Service Delivery

This section looks at the service relationship that is an assigned requirement of the position. It considers the required manner in which the position delivers service to customers. It is not intended to examine the incumbent's interpersonal relationship with those customers and the normal anticipation of what customers want and then supplying it efficiently. It considers how the request for service is received and the degree to which the position is required to design and fulfil the service requirement. A "customer" is defined in the broadest sense as a person or groups of people and can be internal or external to the College.

In the table below, list the key service(s) and its associated customers. Describe how the request for service is received by the incumbent, how the service is carried out and the frequency.

Information on the service		Customer	Frequency (D, W, M, I)*
How is it received?	How is it carried out?
Students and Community members wanting Counselling information or appointment	Incumbent uses Clockwork calendars to schedule counsellor appointments. Other info and appropriate referrals made in response to inquiries.	Students, potential students and employees.	D

- Medium (between 5 to 20 kg or 11 to 44 lbs)
- Heavy (over 20 kg or 44 lbs)

Paper, Office Supplies, File Boxes

10. Audio Visual Effort

Describe the degree of attention or focus required to perform tasks taking into consideration:

- the audio/visual effort and the focus or concentration needed to perform a task and the duration of the task, including breaks (eg. up to 2 hours at one time including scheduled breaks)
- impact on attention or focus due to changes to deadlines or priorities
- the need for the incumbent to switch attention between tasks (eg. multi-tasking where each task requires focus or concentration)
- whether the level of concentration can be maintained throughout the task or is broken due to the number of disruptions

Provide up to three (3) examples of activities that require a higher than usual need for focus and concentration.

Activity #1	Frequency (D, W, M, I)*	Average Duration
		Short < 30 mins	Long up to 2 hrs	Extended > 2 hrs
Scanning hard copies of confidential documents into electronic files	W		X
Can concentration or focus be maintained throughout the duration of the activity? If not, why? <input type="checkbox"/> Usually <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No – The documents that are scanned are confidential and can contain sensitive personal information. It is essential that these documents be fully scanned with no pages missing. Further they need to be scanned to the correct student file and not mis-filed. This position is responsible for staffing a busy front line customer service desk and could be interrupted at any time during the task by students and staff alike.

Activity #3	Frequency (D, W, M, I)*	Average Duration
