

CAAT Job Evaluation System for Non-Bargaining Unit Employees

Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology

The Job Fact Sheet Questionnaire (JFS) is used to gather information for job evaluation purposes for the Colleges' Administrative Staff positions. Please read each section carefully before completing.

The Education and Experience sections are to be completed by the College according to the College's recruitment standards.

Upon completion by an incumbent, the JFS is reviewed and, when necessary, adjusted by the position's Manager and the Senior Manager responsible for the position. Any changes to the JFS are to be reviewed with the incumbent prior to evaluation. The JFS is then submitted to the appropriate College official for job evaluation purposes.

The JFS is not finalized until it has gone through the job evaluation process and the results have been confirmed by the College. A copy of the finalized JFS will be provided the incumbent for information purposes and as a job description.

POSITION SUMMARY

Provide a concise description of the position by identifying its most significant responsibilities and/or accountabilities.

Reporting to the Associate Vice President, Marketing and Advancement, the Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will lead a team of functional experts comprised of graphic design, videography and marketing personnel, who act in the capacity of support for campaigns and marketing initiatives.

The Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will work with the Associate Vice President, Marketing and Advancement, and the Digital Marketing Strategy Manager, to develop and implement a 3-year strategic marketing plan that is comprised of integrated college-wide digital marketing promotions and campaigns and out-of-home (OOH) advertising, driven by enrolment plans and brand-building objectives. This plan will include both multi-channel and multi-audience marketing strategies and programs with a focus on increasing Fleming's brand awareness, program applications and confirmations. The 3-year strategic plan will align with both the College strategic plan and short-term business needs, including positioning, messaging, and competitive differentiation.

The Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will manage the booking of all OOH advertising - billboards, bus wraps, transit shelters. The incumbent will work closely with the Digital Marketing Strategy Manager to ensure that OOH buys are aligned with digital buys (geo's, tactics etc.).

The incumbent will lead the CRM (Salesforce) project to enhance lead, prospect, and applicant conversion through digital platforms and will develop and oversee the execution of the marketing strategy that includes but is not limited to cohesive search engine optimization strategy and ensures that both the UI and UX of the website is optimized to reflect the consumer journey.

The incumbent will be responsible for visual consistency and quality across all brand touch points, including, campaigns, print materials, and physical spaces. The incumbent will work with the Digital Marketing Strategy Manager to ensure that the web and social assets are aligned to the most up to date and recent brand identity standards. The incumbent will enhance and maintain the visual identity and design guidelines for the organization's brand, including the logo, color palette, typography, imagery, photography. This includes managing the design and production of all brand-related materials, story boarding for videos, developing shot lists for photoshoots and developing and enhancing the College brand campaigns.

The Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will effectively direct and manage the Graphic Designer and the Videographer to develop, implement and maintain a consistent and compelling brand identity across all channels and touch points. The incumbent will collaborate with various stakeholders to ensure the brand's visual representation is consistent and aligned with the organization's values, objectives, and five-year College strategic plan. Additionally, the incumbent will have a focus to ensure AODA compliance for all advertising products. This role requires a strong understanding of brand principles, excellent design and art direction skills, and the ability to manage and inspire a creative team.

The Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will be a cross-functional collaborator, collaborating with and being the point of contact for all academic schools, departments, and divisions within the College to ensure brand alignment and support with marketing initiatives. The incumbent will own all portfolios and ensure effectiveness of working relationships with all areas. The incumbent will build go-to-market strategies and tactics to ensure there is effective brand consistency. The incumbent will lead and utilize the support of the Marketing Consultants to effectively deliver growth that contributes to overall objectives.

The Brand Marketing Strategy Manager will work closely with the Digital Marketing Strategy Manager and the College's institutional research team and continuously monitor enrollment including applications and confirmations to make recommendations based on data, customer insights, market dynamics, and College dashboards as it pertains to applications and confirmations and programs with a strong weighted funded unit (WFU), high institutional strength among a variety of other factors and data sets.

1. COMPLEXITY - JUDGEMENT (DECISION MAKING)

Complexity refers to the variety and relative difficulty of comprehending and critically analyzing the material, information, situations and/or processes upon which decisions are based.

Judgement refers to the process of identifying and reviewing the available options involved in decision making and then choosing the most appropriate option. Judgement involves the application of the knowledge and experience expected of an individual performing the position.

Provide up to three examples of the most important and difficult decisions that an incumbent is typically required to make.

- a) The incumbent is responsible for the development and production of the 3-year strategic marketing plan/schedule to support marketing/recruitment strategies and/or enrolment targets. The Manager must ensure the plan/content is competitively creative. In developing the plan, the Manager must integrate lead capture platforms and storyboard highly creative strategies. The Manager cannot rely on previous successes and must be proactive and embrace emerging technologies and/or trends.
- b) Based on input from the internal resources, creative services team (Marketing Consultants, Graphic Designer and Videographer) and external resources, creative agency, the Manager will oversee/lead the process of enhancing the brand and future brand campaigns. Depending on the scope of the activity, the Manager will decide if a task group needs to be set-up. The incumbent will identify the departments affected and select representatives to form the task group. The Manager will develop the project costs and determine the resources to complete the project.
- c) The Manager is responsible for ensuring the college's brand and consistent brand messaging are adhered to in all communications and advertising channels and platforms. If a department or individual creates their own messaging that misrepresents or ignores the branding standards, it is the incumbent's responsibility to investigate and recommend changes to the marketing process to limit other occurrences.

2. EDUCATION (to be finalized by the College)

Education refers to the minimum level of formal education and/or the type of training or its equivalent that is required of an incumbent at the point of hire for the position. This may or may not match an incumbent's actual education or training.

The College is to finalize the minimum level of education and/or type of training or its equivalent that is required for the position based upon the College's recruitment standards.

- Self-starter, ability to drive project forward and perform independently with minimal supervision
- Ability to multi-task and perform well under pressure

4. INITIATIVE - INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION

Initiative - Independence of action refers to the amount of responsibility inherent in a position and the degree of freedom that an incumbent has to initiate or take action to complete the requirements of the position. An incumbent is required to foresee activities and decisions to be made, then take the appropriate action(s) to ensure successful outcomes. This factor recognizes the established levels of authority which may restrict the incumbent's ability to initiate or take action, e.g., obtaining direction or approval from a supervisor, reliance on established procedures/methods of operation or professional practices/standards, and/or built-in-controls dictated by computer/management systems.

A) Briefly describe up to three typical job duties/types of decisions that the incumbent is required to perform using their initiative without first having to obtain direction or approval from a supervisor.

- a) Develops the strategy and the design, production and execution of 3-year strategic marketing plan.
- b) Managing the Graphic Designer, Videographer and Marketing Consultants and associated projects, ensuring projects are delivered on brand and on time.
- c) Reviews and approves all brand related materials and out of home deliverables, including but not limited to posters, sell sheets, flyers, pull up banners, viewbooks, brochures, postcards, pamphlets.

B) Briefly describe up to three typical job duties/types of decisions that the incumbent is required to perform which required the direction or approval from a supervisor.

- a) Development of the annual marketing budget for the Associate Vice President, Marketing and Advancement's approval.
- b) New initiatives or changes to the existing/approved college wide brand marketing campaigns strategies that have been agreed to.
- c) Staffing decisions that may involve hiring/discipline/ termination.

Give specific examples of guidelines, procedures, manuals (formal or informal), computer systems/programs that are used in performing job duties and in making decisions, e.g., Government regulations, professional or trade standards, College policies or procedures, department or program procedures, computerized/manual programs/systems and any other defined methods or procedures.

- College and department policies, procedures
- College strategic plan
- Brand messaging standards/guidelines

- Collective Agreements
- Relevant legislation (ex. AODA, CASL)

5. POTENTIAL IMPACT OF DECISIONS

Potential Impact of Decisions recognizes the potential consequences that errors in judgement made by an incumbent, despite due care, could have on the College. Usually, the higher the level of accountability inherent in a position, the greater the potential consequences there are on the College from errors in judgement.

Give up to three examples of the typical types of errors in judgement that an incumbent could make in performing the requirements of the position. Do not describe errors which could occur as a result of poor performance, or ones that are rare or extreme. Indicate the probable effects of those errors on the College, e.g., loss of reputation of program/College, waste of resources, financial losses, injury, property damage, affects on staff, students, clients or public.

- a) Ineffective brand campaign messages/strategies will have a negative effect on the college's image thereby impacting how potential students and clients perceive the college, which could hinder enrollment.
- b) Not recognizing/projecting changing trends or technologies related to marketing and advertising could lead students and clients to perceive the college as a dated educational institution instead of leading edge.
- c) Not performing adequate research on trends, market and segmented audiences prior to launching a brand campaign could negatively impact the brand of the College and the success of the campaign which will negatively impact enrolment targets.

6. CONTACTS AND WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

Contacts and Working Relationships refers to the types, importance and intended outcomes of the contacts and working relationships required by an incumbent to perform the responsibilities of a position. It also measures the skill level required to be effective in dealing with contacts and being involved in working relationships. This factor does not focus on the level of the contact, but on the nature of the contact.

Indicate by job title, with whom an incumbent is required to interact to perform the duties and responsibilities of the positions. Describe the nature, purpose and frequency of the interaction, e.g., exchanging information, teaching, conflict resolution, team consultation, counselling.

Contacts	Contacts by Job Title	Nature and Purpose of Contact	Frequency of Contact

7a. CHARACTER OF SUPERVISION/FUNCTIONAL GUIDANCE

Character of Supervision identifies the degree and type of supervisory responsibility in a position or the nature of functional/program supervision, technical direction or advice involved in staff relationships.

(√) Check the applicable box(es) to describe the type of supervisory responsibility required by an incumbent in the position:

- Not responsible for supervising or providing guidance to anyone.
- Provides technical and/or functional guidance to staff and/or students.
- Instructs students and supervises various learning environments.
- Assigns and checks work of others doing similar work.
- Supervises a work group. Assigns work to be done, methods to be used, and is responsible for the work performed by the group.
- Manages the staff and operations of a program area/department.*
- Manages the staff and operations of a division/major department.*
- Manages the staff and operations of several divisions/major departments.*
- Acts as a consultant to College management.
- Supervises the work of external contractors/service providers. Please describe:
Works with advertising vendors to oversee campaign execution and results
- Other e.g., counselling, coaching. Please specify:

* Includes management responsibilities for hiring, assignment of duties and work to be performed, performance management, and recommending the termination of staff.

Specify staff (by title) or groups who are supervised/given functional guidance by an incumbent.

- Graphic Designer
- Videographer
- Marketing Consultants

7b. SPAN OF CONTROL

Span of Control is complementary to Character of Supervision/Functional Guidance. Span of Control refers to the total number of staff for which the position has supervisory responsibility, (i.e., subordinates, plus all staff reporting to these subordinates).

Enter the total number of full time and full time equivalent staff reporting through to the position. Also identify the number of staff for whom the position has indirect responsibility (contract for service), if applicable.

Type of Staff	Number of Staff
Full-Time Staff	5
Non Full Time Staff (FTE) *
Contract for Service  (Co-op Student)
Total:	5

* Full Time Equivalency (FTE) conversions for non full time staff are as follows:

Academic Staff

Identify the total average annual teaching hours taught by all non full time teachers (part-time, partial load and sessional) for which the position is accountable and divide by 648 hours for post secondary teachers and 760 hours for non-post secondary teachers.

Support Staff

Identify the total average annual hours worked by part-time support staff for which the position is accountable and divide by 1820 hours.

Administrative Staff

Identify the total average annual hours worked by non full time administrative staff for which the position is accountable and divide by 1820 hours.

 Contract for Services

When considering “contracts for services,” review the nature of the contractual arrangements to determine the degree of “supervisory” responsibility the position has for contract employees. This could range from “no credit for supervising staff” when the contracting company takes full responsibility for all staffing issues to “prorated credit for supervising staff” when the position is required to handle the initial step(s) when contract staffing issues arise.

8. PHYSICAL AND SENSORY DEMANDS

Physical/Sensory Demands considers the degree and severity of exertion associated with the position. The factor considers the intensity and severity of the physical effort rather than the strength or energy needed to perform the task. It also considers the sensory attention required by the job as well as the frequency of that effort and the length of time spent on tasks that cause sensory fatigue.

Identify the types of physical and/or sensory demands that are required by an incumbent. Indicate the frequency of the physical demands as well as the frequency and duration of the sensory demands. Use the frequency and duration definitions following the tables to assist with the descriptions.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate the physical effort that is required in the position on a regular basis, i.e., sitting, standing, walking, climbing, lifting and/or carrying light, medium or heavy objects, pushing, pulling, working in an awkward position or maintaining one position for a long period of time.

Types of Activities that Demonstrate Physical Effort Required	Frequency (note definitions below)
	Occasional	Moderate	Considerable	Extended	Continuous
Sitting (meetings, workstation, etc)			X

SENSORY DEMANDS

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate the sensory effort that is required in the position on a concentrated basis, i.e., reading information/data without interruption, inputting data, report writing, operating a computer or calculator, fine electrical or mechanical work, taking minutes of meetings, counselling, tasting, smelling etc.

Types of Activities that Demonstrate Sensory Effort Required	Frequency (note definitions below)					Duration
	Occasional	Moderate	Considerable	Extended	Continuous	Short Intermediate or Long
Reading data, text			X			I
Analyzing data		X				I
Gathering, examining, planning, writing marketing materials, plans, strategies			X			I

FREQUENCY:

Occasional:	Occurs once in a while, sporadically.

Considerable:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis for up to a half of the work period.
Extended:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis for up to three-quarters of the work period.
Continuous:	Occurs on a regular, ongoing basis throughout the entire work period except for regulated breaks.

DURATION:

Short:	Up to one hour at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.
Intermediate:	More than one hour and up to two hours at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.
Long:	More than two hours at a time without the opportunity to change to another task or take a break.

9. WORKING CONDITIONS

Working Conditions considers the frequency and type of exposure to undesirable, disagreeable environmental conditions or hazards, under which the work is performed.

Describe any unpleasant environmental conditions and work hazards that the incumbent is exposed to during the performance of the job.

Environment

Describe the types of activities and provide examples that demonstrate exposure to unpleasant environmental conditions in the day-to-day activities that are required in the job on a regular basis, e.g., exposure to dirt, chemical substances, grease, extreme temperatures, odours, noise, travel, verbal abuse, body fluid, etc. Indicate the activity as well as the frequency of exposure to undesirable working conditions.

Types of Activities That Involve Job Related Unpleasant Environmental Conditions	Frequency (note definitions below)
