6.0	New Business: 6.1 COVID-19 Update 6.2 COVID Rules	KE provided the CMT with a general COVID-19 update. KE noted new academic initiative requiring JHSC review. KE has offered to help the Health Unit facilitate local vaccinations. Updates to rules related to SWP's, busing, camps, etc.	KE noted the stay-at-home order has been lifted and that HKPR is currently in the Orange zone. Looking forward to how the Spring, Summer and Fall schedules will be impacted. RDB program will not be attending Quarry camp so initiative to bring activities to campus. KE noted that this requires specific H&S requirements and review with the City of Kawartha Lakes. JHSC will support initiative as it progresses. Fleming has offered the use of facility for a vaccination site. There are students who can also volunteer their time. Chairs and Deans have collated a master list of academic activities that requires review and approval from SMT. KE noted that the JHSC being aware and knowledgeable of these decisions will help when answering questions from colleagues.

	6.3 Resource Member Invitation	CMT discussed Mental Health topic and resource guest available to speak to CMT.	SB will reach out to learning specialist to see if there are resources available for JHSC members to share for employees asking.
